3rd Sunday of Advent

Holiday magazines are well known for providing quick, practical ideas for trimming the house, welcoming guests, and preparing enticing food. The suggestions that are offered are designed to help the host and hostess show off a stunning atmosphere without spending days and weeks preparing for a party or dinner that may only last an hour or two. Often everyday items are transformed with a swatch of fabric, a candle, or some evergreens. Ingenious cutting makes plain vegetables or ordinary hors d'oeuvres into holiday delights. The operative concepts in getting people to buy these idea books and read them are: quick, easy, and practical.

In the Gospel today, John the Baptist offers quick, easy, and practical ideas for those who would prepare for the coming of the Christ. As St. Luke tells us, people in his day were filled with expectation. John was pretty straightforward in what he thought they should do: If you have two coats, give one away to somebody who doesn't have one; be equitable in your dealings with others; don't push people around; don't lie about people. In modern parlance, we might say that John the Baptist was asking people to act justly in the world.

Unfortunately, today we don't often think of justice as quick, easy, or practical. Our understanding of justice is more often colored by the contemporary legal system than by the divine laws of the covenant that binds God and his people. There was a reciprocity and equanimity in the covenantal relationship. There were duties to be fulfilled on each side. John was asking that those who were filled with expectation for the coming of the Messiah would set themselves aright with one another so that God's covenant would find full expression in the relationships that bind people to God and to one another. Justice is really about leveling things out. And when you think about it, that is pretty easy. If you have more, then you share.

John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16

Dear Parishioners,

A beautiful church deserves equally beautiful Mass vestments and communion vessels, and we are fortunate to have a nice selection of all of the above here at St. John the Baptist. We are using our pewter chalices and ciboria for Advent but will soon switch back to the gold for Christmas. You may have noticed that we are also using a simple fabric cover for the book of the Gospels to further distinguish the tone of the different liturgical seasons.

I recently ordered three chasubles to complement our existing collection of Mass vestments. I was able to do so without breaking the budget by asking various parish organizations to help underwrite the cost. Our new Marian chasuble to be worn on feasts honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary was purchased with a gift from our Catholic Daughters. Our new red chasuble to be worn on Palm Sunday, Good Friday, Pentecost, and the feast days of martyrs was purchased with a gift from our Knights of Columbus. And finally, our new light green chasuble to help see us through the long period of ordinary time was purchased through the generosity of the Zippers.

Parish organizations like the Catholic Daughters, K.C.'s, and Zippers are visible expressions of the Church's charitable, fraternal, and evangelical ministry. They provide service to the local community and raise awareness of important national and global issues concerning our faith. We are blessed to have them so active in our parish and I am thankful for all of their contributions to our community.

Just as many of us put off Christmas shopping until the last minute so too many of us put off going to confession until the last minute. The time is now upon us if we want to celebrate Christ's birth with clean hearts and consciences. All of our neighboring parishes have celebrated their penance services. We are the last one on the schedule and our parish penance service begins at 7:00 p.m. this Tuesday, December 18. Fathers Angeles, Berggreen, and Milano are scheduled to assist us so please put aside any worries or excuses and come to confession before Christmas. (I will also be in the confessional next Saturday for the truly unreformed procrastinators.)

Dr. Chris Baglow, professor of dogmatic theology at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans, will be here on Thursday night, December 20, to offer some good faith enrichment for the adults of our community. Dr. Baglow's presentation is entitled "Belief Under Assault: Rescuing Faith & Reason from Monstrous Mentalities." The evening begins with a wine and cheese reception at 6:00 p.m. and concludes at 7:30 p.m. and I encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity to hear our Catholic faith articulated by an outstanding speaker and theologian.

Our schedule of services for Christmas includes two Masses on Christmas Eve and two Masses on Christmas morning. The celebration begins on Christmas Eve with a choir concert at 3:15 p.m. followed by our 4:00 p.m. Vigil Mass. We then have a second Vigil Mass at 6:00 p.m. which includes a dramatization of the Gospel by our 4th & 5th graders. Masses on Christmas Day are at 7:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. (We will not have a midnight Mass this year.) I look forward to celebrating my first Christmas with all of you!

In Christ,
Father Matt
